

Project String Power, Inc.

Sponsorship and Donation Form

Project String Power, Inc. is a non-profit community education program supported by contributions of individuals and businesses passionate about improving the lives of students and subsequently their audiences through music. Supporting a student through sponsorship completely covers the cost of lessons. Consider assisting us in reaching our mission to develop musical skills of East Texas students on stringed instruments by providing a sponsorship with a tax-deductible contribution of $1320 for a full year of study.

You may wish to designate your contribution to a specific class or student or make it in honor or in memory of a loved one. Please use the spaces below to provide additional information:
